Dear Students:

Northwestern State University will be migrating from the current Web for Students system to a new system which is called NSUConnect. We are asking for your support and understanding during this migration period which will take place from March – December 2012. Beginning on March 19, 2012, the new NSUConnect system will be available to students for advisement for the fall 2012 semester. Some records may only be viewed while others may be updated on this new system. With this new system students can:

- Perform online registration, including add and drop classes during registration periods.
- Search for open sections of classes, and check registration appointment time.
- View their class schedule, grades, and unofficial transcripts.
- Request their official academic transcript.
- View the listing of classes being offered.
- View holds that have been placed on their records.
- View their academic status (good standing, probation or suspension).
- View and update their addresses, telephone numbers, e-mail addresses, and emergency contact information.
- Change their personal identification number and change their security question.
- View their CAPP Degree Audit evaluation, and perform a “What If” analysis.
- View their account balance and make online payments with E-Check. MasterCard, Visa or American Express.
- View their financial aid information.
- Electronically accept their Financial Aid award.

SUMMER 2012 EARLY REGISTRATION BY WEB FOR STUDENTS
Web for Students is off-line for backup and maintenance from 12:00 a.m. to 7:00 a.m. CT

FALL 2012 EARLY REGISTRATION BY THE NEW NSUConnect SYSTEM
NSUConnect is off-line for backup and maintenance from 12:00 a.m. to 5:00 a.m. CT

NEW PROCEDURES: ALL students are now required to use the new NSUConnect system to early register for the fall 2012 semester. The new NSUConnect system is designed so that only students can use the system to add, drop, and register for their classes. Faculty members no longer have the capability to register students for classes for the fall 2012 semester.
